EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the drawings:

Remarks:

The above Examiner's amendment was made to label the drawings, figure 2(a) and figure 2(b) as 'Prior Art'.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
the claimed subject matter is allowable because the arts of record fail to teach or fairly suggest the claimed receiver of claim 5 which includes demodulation means, first and second de-emphasis circuits and a expander:
wherein 'the receiver including demodulation means, a first de-emphasis circuit, expander circuit and a second de-emphasis circuit, the expander circuit having a variable gain amplifier, the expander circuit connected to an output of the demodulation means, the first de-emphasis circuit connected to the output of the demodulation means and de-emphasizing the output signal of the demodulation means in high frequencies, the second de-emphasis circuit connected to an output of the expander circuit and de-emphasizing the output signal of the expander at high frequencies', and 'the first de-emphasis circuit disposed in the receiver and connected to the output of the demodulator in parallel with the expander circuit, an output of the first de-emphasis circuit connected to the rectifier circuit, the first de-emphasis circuit de-emphasizing the output signal of the demodulation means in -6dB in both the gain and the high frequencies; and the second de-emphasis circuit de-emphasizing the output signal of the expander circuit in -6dB in both the gain and the high frequencies; the output signal of the first de-emphasis circuit controlling a gain of the variable gain amplifier'.

When used in combination with the following components as claimed by the applicant:

- transmitter
- pre-emphasis circuit
- compressor
- rectifier circuit
- gain amplifier

Hence claim 5 is allowable.

Claims 2-4 are allowable as being dependent from an allowable independent claim.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
 - Thomson et al. (6,038,430) disclose method and apparatus for improving transmission of data in a wireless network by using compressor, de-emphasis, expander and pre-emphasis circuits.
 - Eastmond et al. (5,226,178) disclose compatible noise reduction system by using compressor, expander, gain normalization, pre-emphasis, and de-emphasis circuits.
